

UNEMPLOYMENT TO RECEIVE ATTENTION OF LEGISLATURE

Resolutions Presented in the House and Sent to the Senate to Raise a Commission of Three Members of the Senate and a Member of the House From Each County to Inquire Into the Extent and Causes of Unemployment and to Submit Remedial Recommendations—Bill Increasing the Pay of Court Messengers Favorably Reported—Many Other Matters of Interest.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Hartford, Feb. 12.—The chief business of interest in the house was the passage of a bill to create a commission to inquire into the extent and causes of unemployment and to submit remedial recommendations. The bill was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the commission shall consist of three members of the senate and one member of the house from each county. The commission is to report to the legislature at its next session.

Favorable report from committee on a bill to increase the pay of court messengers. The bill was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The cities and boroughs committee reported a bill to provide for the payment of court messengers. The bill was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

The bill of the house was introduced by Representative Charles E. Baker and was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The bill provides that the pay of court messengers shall be increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per day.

Cabled Paragraphs Get $1-a-Day Raise

U. S. S. George Washington at Brest.
Brest, France, Feb. 12.—The U. S. S. George Washington arrived here today, to carry President Wilson back to the United States. Twenty-two crew members will join the George Washington on her return trip to the United States, as a presidential escort.

Will Resume on Monday the Strike Which Was Suspend- ed Pending Negotiations.

New York, Feb. 12.—Representatives of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and the Building Trades Employers' Association failed to agree on a wage scale at a conference here today and the carpenters will resume on Monday the strike which was suspended while negotiations were pending.

Albans Are Denied Habeas Corpus Writ

New York, Feb. 12.—A writ of habeas corpus sworn out in an attempt to prevent deportation of fifty-three aliens brought here from western cities was dismissed by Federal Judge Knox today.

Condensed Telegrams

America's war cost was estimated at $16,000,000,000.
Staten Islanders are planning for the building of a tunnel to New York.
Friedrich Ebert, president of Germany, will receive a salary of $236,000.

Discharged Soldiers Will Not Need to Pass a Physical Test in New Jersey

War Department announced advance rating for 20 American army aviators six of whom are dead.
Japan's proposal to accept restoration of the Siberian railway.

A large unidentified steamer ran aground in a snowstorm three miles south of Gloucester, N. C.

Y. M. C. A. wants 100 more educational experts to reinforce the field staff of the American Army of Occupation.

King Alfonso of Spain will visit South America. He will go to Buenos Aires, Montevideo and Rio de Janeiro.

Lieut. Lowell W. Bartlett, of Rockford, Ill., was killed when his airplane fell at Carlstrom field, near Arcadia, Fla.

A bill was introduced in the New York Legislature providing for the establishment of a department for motor vehicles.

American Society of Friends sent a message to President Wilson asking him to urge complete disarmament of all nations.

A conference of the Miners' Federation of Britain rejected terms offered by the Government for a settlement of wage demands.

German officers interned in Switzerland celebrated the birthday of the ex-kaiser by drinking to his "early restoration to power."

Every member of Congress has received a circular from the Farmers' National Council condemning the oil leasing bill.

Persons entering Mexico from the United States no longer will be com-

Violent Practices of The Russian Bolsheviks

Washington, Feb. 12.—Violent practices of the Bolsheviks to maintain control over the country were recounted today by witnesses at the senate committee's inquiry into lawless activities in this country. Little definite evidence of Bolshevik propaganda in the United States was presented although one witness, Professor Fajol-Denis, of Northwestern University, described how the Bolsheviks had developed in this country. Another witness, Russell M. Storey, of the University of Illinois, recently returned from Russia as a Y. M. C. A. worker, said he had received the impression that people in this country have a "very active and honest desire" to know about the Bolshevik system.

AN ALLEGED DEFRAUDER ARRESTED IN FRANCE

New York, Feb. 12.—William Lustgarten, who is alleged to have misappropriated between $400,000 and $700,000 of funds from the Y. M. C. A. of New York, of which he was president, and who has been missing since August, 1917, when he was indicted for grand larceny, was arrested by the military authorities in France and will be brought here and turned over to the civil authorities, according to a statement today from the county district attorney, Lustgarten, who was believed by his friends to have committed suicide after his disappearance from this city.

URGENT DEPORTATION OF ALL ALIEN 'SLACKERS'

Washington, Feb. 12.—Deportation of aliens who surrendered their declarations of intention to become American citizens in order to escape military service was urged in the house today by Representative Johnson of Washington. Mr. Johnson presented a telegram from citizens of Aberdeen, N. D., dated Jan. 1919, and said he hoped the United States would make progress with the housekeeping that the war has demonstrated we need.

CHANGES IN DRAFT FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, Feb. 12.—The League of Nations commission, according to the official communication this evening, received the report of the draft committee this morning, with the result that several new articles have been added to the original text and others changed with a view to simplification. More than a quarter of the draft was provided in this final form.

GOV. HOLCOMBE TO APPOINT RECONSTRUCTION COMMISSION

New York, Feb. 12.—Governor Holcomb of Connecticut has notified the New York State Reconstruction Commission of his intention to appoint a reconstruction commission and has asked for advice on the best method of conducting such work. It was announced here today.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF MEAT INDUSTRY URGED

Washington, Feb. 12.—Government regulation and control of the meat industry was urged before the house interstate commerce committee today by Mr. Florence Kelley, General Secretary of the National Consumers' League. She appeared after Francis J. Henry, former counsel for the Federal Trade Commission, had finished presenting his views as to federal regulation.

SENATE HAS DECIDED TO HOLD NIGHT SESSIONS

Washington, Feb. 12.—In an effort to clear the congested legislative calendar and thus remove the necessity for the early convening of the new congress in extra session democratic senators decided at a conference tonight to hold night sessions of the senate until congress adjourns sine die March 4.

LIMITED RECEIVER ASKED FOR THE NEW HAVEN ROAD

Petition in Equity Filed in U. S. District Court in New York, by Counsel of a Protective Committee Representing 1,738 Stockholders, on the Ground That Much of the "$240,000,000 Spent Outside of Its Spheres" Had Been Wasted—Receiver Not to Interfere With the Current Affairs of Operation of the Road—February 21 Fixed as Date for the Hearing—Stock Broke Three Points When the News Reached Wall Street.

New York, Feb. 12.—A petition in equity asking for the appointment of a limited receiver for the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, on the ground that much of the "$240,000,000 spent outside of its spheres" had been wasted and that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.

The petition, which was filed on behalf of the stockholders, alleges that the receiver should be appointed to bring new suits to recover part of that sum on behalf of certain of stockholders had been filed in the United States district court here today by counsel for Harold Norris and other members of a "protective committee" representing 1,738 stockholders holding 51,553 shares.